OFFICERS' HOSPITAL, Jan. 1st, 1865.

Mr. Editor .- One of those pleasing inidents that coour but seldom in one's lifeome, we had the pleasure of witnessing to-day. It was on the occasion of the prosentation of a most beautiful Watch to Dr. J. C. Hall, by the officers of the Hospital. Captain W. B. Fay, was called to the Chair, and Capt. J. H. Hackett of the 29th Mich. gan, was appointed Secretary. Lieut. D L. Lebon of the 3d Tenn. Cav. being selected o present the watch, he said : Dr. J. C. Hall-Sir :- In behalf of you umerous friends and patients, allow me to resent to you this watch as a slight token of heir appreciation of you as an officer and gen leman. Efficient, competent and faithful ou have shown yourself during our short soourn with you, you have by your generous conduct and gentlemanly disposition, won the esteem of your companions in arms. Long may you live to enjoy the friendship of the donors of this beautiful gift, and to dispense comfort and blessing around the couch of the maimed and suffering. Dr. T. A. Bland, in behalf of Dr. Hall esponded as follows:

BESPONNE. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Comsitter:-On behalf of my friend Dr. Hall, I accept this beautiful gift. A fit emblem of the Department of Virginia and North that respect, friendship and love, that he, by his professional skill, kindness of heart and courteous bearing has won from all with whom he has been associated. Rethe person named by Licut, General Grant property. Persons desirous of obtaining lated as I have been since my sojourn as his temporary successor. General Ord, among you, I possess rare opportunities of lately in charge of the Corps, has succeednoticing the high regard in which you all ed temporarily to the position.

The position of Surgeon and Physician is an arduous and difficult one to fill with satisfaction to ourselves, much less to our patients, and the testimonial that comes to Dr. Hall, in the shape of this beautiful short work of the rebellion. watch, cannot be otherwise than extremely gratifying. Many of you can remember, when from the field of carnage, you were borne to this asylum for our country's heroes; with your life blood ebbing from cruel wounds, when despair had almost usurped the place of hope, how the skill and kindness of your Surgeou rescusd you from the embrace of death.

every eye, and this valuable gift doe ustice to your generous and grateful hearts It is a beautiful gift, and as appropriate as it is beautiful. As time rolls on, and change and decay holds all perishable things in their resistless grasp, no change can mar, or distance sever, the friendship that is epresented by this gift. Day after day, as will memories of these scenes and your friendship, renew the tie that binds him to you, and cheer him on in the discharge o his arduous duties to suffering humanity Here is engraved the American Eagle, holding in talons the emblem of liberty, and overing over a land once pesceful and happy, now drenched with fraternal blood, ere long destined to arrise from her trial of fire more pure than she dame from the hand of her sire. And this engraving will serve to remind Dr. Hall of the noble part you have borne in this glorious struggle for liberty and equal rights. Allow me to say without becoming obnoxious to the charge of professional egotism, that no class of men have made more sacrifices in this war han our Surgeons, and it is peculiarly gratifying to his friends to know that you appreciate so highly the services of Dr. Hall Allow me to thank you in his name for this beautiful and costly gift. The value of which is erhanced a thousand fold by the circumstances attending its reception and the memories that must cluster around it.

There's Many a Slip 'twixt Cup and

Baton Rouge under Gen. Davidson, the 2d Illinois cavalry commanded by the cupation of that place. Li utenant Colonel, was ordered to precede the main body into Franklinon. About two miles west of the town. there is a road coming into the Tangipaho road from the soath, and just as the regiment reached the junction, there was a wedding party coming into the road from the south. The party consisted of the bride and groom, four Chairs, officers and soldiers of the rebel army, and five ladies. Seeing the "gray backs," the Colonel of the Second ordered them to halt, upon which the party turned to run, when the Colonel ommanded the advance of his regimanding officer offered the bridegroom to wait for him to send for the bride and finish the wedding if he desired, but the offer was very politely declined. THE BRAZILIAN DIFFICULTY.-There is
